

Supreme Court of Florida

AOSCOO-39

IN RE: FLORIDA RULE OF JUDICIAL PROCEDURE 2.090(c) - ELECTRONIC FILING OF COURT DOCUMENTS WITH ALACHUA COUNTY CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Procedure 2.090, on March 30, 1993, this Court approved the request of the Alachua County Clerk of the Circuit Court supported by the Chief Judge of the Eighth Judicial Circuit for the use of a facsimile machine for receiving electronic filing of court documents; and

WHEREAS, the said clerk of the court has certified to this Court that utilization of its facsimile equipment has proven efficient and reliable in meeting the demands of persons wishing to file court documents electronically by fax transmission in Alachua County; and

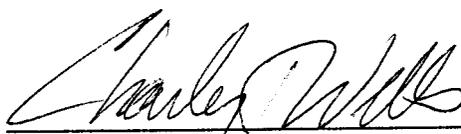

WHEREAS, pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Procedure 2.090(c)(2)(B), the said clerk requests permission to discontinue that portion of rule 2.090 requiring follow-up filing of the original paper document subsequent to its filing by fax transmission; and

WHEREAS, Florida Rule of Judicial Procedure 2.090(c)(2) authorizes this court to enter an order approving discontinuation of follow-up filing of original documents once they are filed electronically; therefore

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

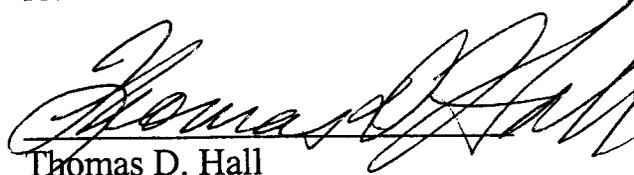

- a. The Alachua County Clerk of the Circuit Court may continue accepting electronic filing of court documents by facsimile transmission, and
- b. Unless otherwise required by general law, statute, or court rule, that portion of Florida Rule of Judicial Procedure 2.090 requiring follow-up filing of a document that has been previously filed by electronic facsimile transmission is hereby discontinued in Alachua County.

DONE AND ORDERED at Tallahassee, Florida this 6th day of October, 2000.

Charles T. Wells
Chief Justice
