Re: MQB 2011-013

Dear Mr. Furer:

The Mediator Qualifications Board Grievance Complaint Committee (GCC) assigned to your case has met pursuant to rule 10.810, Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators on several occasions regarding a complaint filed against you, Stanley Furer, as a result of a mediation that took place on or about March 3, 2011. As a result of those meetings and in connection with an investigative report, the GCC has made a determination of probable cause and is prepared to issue formal charges of your having violated Rules 10.330(a), 10.350 and 10.370(c). However, prior to drafting formal charges, the GCC is prepared to offer you sanctions as detailed below.

The mediator agrees to the following:

- 1) Completing ten (10) Additional Continuing Mediator Credits:
 - a) You shall complete an additional ten (10) hours of continuing mediator credits specifically on the subjects of demeanor, impartiality, a balanced process and dealing with high conflict parties.
 - b) These additional hours may not be counted toward the required 16 hours of CME for maintaining your mediator certification. These additional hours must consist of at least five (5) separate lectures on the subjects designated. Five of these hours must be either "in person" or attended/listened to and discussed with at least 2 other certified mediators. The remaining five hours may be obtained by listening to/watching audio/video tapes on your own.

- c) All training must be pre-approved by the Dispute Resolution Center Director, Janice M. Fleischer, J.D.
- 2) Mediation observations:
 - a) By observing three (3) separate, non-credit union or non-credit card collection complete mediations which will be conducted by three different mediators with the observational mediators first being approved by the Dispute Resolution Center Director, Janice M. Fleischer.
 - b) You must provide verification of those observations in a form substantially similar to that which new mediators who are applying for initial certification must submit to the Dispute Resolution Center.
 - 3) Reflective Statement
 - a) After the completion of the additional CME hours and observations, you will submit a reflective report on what you gained and learned from the experience and the educational materials utilized.
 - 4) Completion date:
 - a) You are to accomplish the sanctions set forth above by October 1, 2012. You shall provide documentation to the Dispute Resolution Center of your completion of the sanctions in writing sworn and notarized with appropriate additional information. The notice providing documentation shall be sent by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested to the Dispute Resolution Center, attention Janice M. Fleischer, Director.
 - 5) Mediating
 - a) During the time you are completing these sanctions, you may continue to mediate; however, any default of this agreement will result in this matter going back to the GCC for further action.

If you choose to accept the sanctions, your acceptance must be indicated by your signature and notarization below within 20 days of receipt of this letter to: Dispute Resolution Center, Florida Supreme Court Building, 500 South Duval Street,

Tallahassee, FL 32399-1900 by certified mail/ return receipt accepted.

If we do not hear from you or you decide not to accept the sanctions within the same time frame as acceptance and in the same mailing method (certified) the GCC will draft formal charges and forward this matter to the Dispute Resolution Center for assignment to a Hearing Panel pursuant to Rule 10.810(m).

If the GCC does not receive your response within twenty days, the GCC will treat your failure to respond as a rejection of the offer and proceed accordingly. Please be advised that by accepting these Sanctions, you waive your right to attorney's fees and costs from the complainant or the DRC in this matter.

If you need procedural assistance, please contact our office at 850-921-2910.

On behalf of the MQB GCC,

Janice M. Fleischer
Janice M. Fleischer, Director
