

2016 Dispute Resolution Center Annual Conference Award Recipient

Originally trained and certified in 1991, Ms. Beth Greenfield-Mandler currently holds all five Florida Supreme Court Mediator Certifications: county, circuit, family, dependency and appellate. Ms. Greenfield-Mandler is also an assistant trainer in circuit and family mediation and is a proud member of the American Arbitration Association.

Ms. Greenfield-Mandler was admitted to both the Florida and Texas Bars and currently serves as a Circuit Mediator for the United States Court of Appeals, Eleventh Circuit.

Ms. Greenfield-Mandler is actively dedicated to the promotion of community awareness of mediation in the Florida Court system. She educates and promotes awareness of ADR at public events and local school functions.

Since its formation twenty-two years ago, the Dispute Resolution Center's Mediation Ethics Advisory Committee (MEAC) has had only three chairpersons. The DRC is proud to say that Ms. Greenfield-Mandler dedicated eight years of service to the MEAC and was one of those 3 chairpersons. In honor and recognition of Ms. Greenfield-Mandler's contribution to ADR, and the benefit her professionalism and expertise in the field has provided to the citizens of the State of Florida and the Dispute Resolution Center for the past 25 years, we proudly present her with the 2016 Dispute Resolution Center Award! Due to other obligations Ms. Greenfield-Mandler was unable to attend the conference.
